Jungle Hoax Unmasked

MADIUN, East Java (UPI) — An ex-tribal chief and his wife, a convicted prostitute, who posed as king and queen of an obscure Javanese jungle tribe, travelled on a state-paid tour and were received by President Sukarno, will go on trial here soon.

Idrus Trees and his wife, Markonah, fooled Indonesia for two months in the nation's biggest — and most successful—hoax of 1958.

Helicopter Line

PWA Bid Opposed

VANCOUVER (CP)—President Glenn W. McPherson of Okanagan Helicopters Ltd., said Monday his company will oppose Pacific Western Airlines' bid to take over the Vancouver-Victoria-Seattle shuttle air service from Trans-Canada Air Lines.

Mr. McPherson, whose firm operates a fleet of 51 helicopters across Canada, said Okanagan has its sights set on operating vertical takeoff and landing aircraft over the route by 1963.

"We feel that for a new operator to come in now, after TCA has had the run for 12½ years, would definitely prejudice our application when it comes up for hearing before the transport board," Mr. McPherson said.

Hearings Pledged

Mayor Percy Scurrah has received assurance from Transport Minister George Hees that Victoria's objection to Pacific Western Airlines taking over the Trans-Canada Air Lines service "will receive serious consideration," he said yesterday.
